

"Online Transaction Risk" Survey

60 Responses

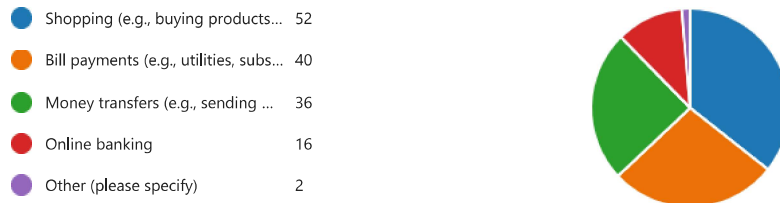

05:22 Average time to complete

Active Status

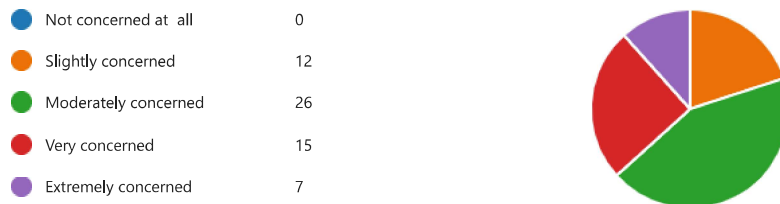

1. How often do you make online transactions (e.g., shopping, bill payments, money transfers)?

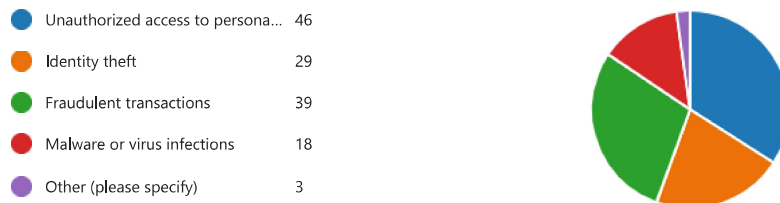

2. What types of online transactions do you typically engage in? (You can select multiple options)

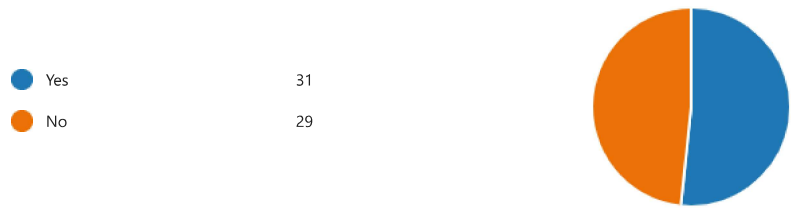

3. On a scale of 1 to 5, how concerned are you about the security risks associated with online transactions?

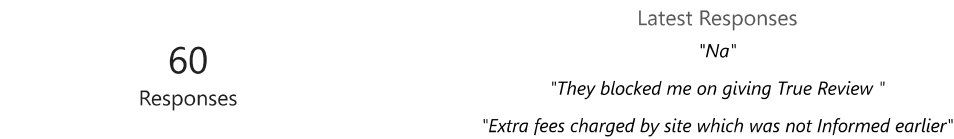

4. What are your main concerns regarding online transactions? (You can select multiple options)

5. Have you ever experienced any issues or incidents related to online transactions? (e.g., fraudulent charges, account hacking)

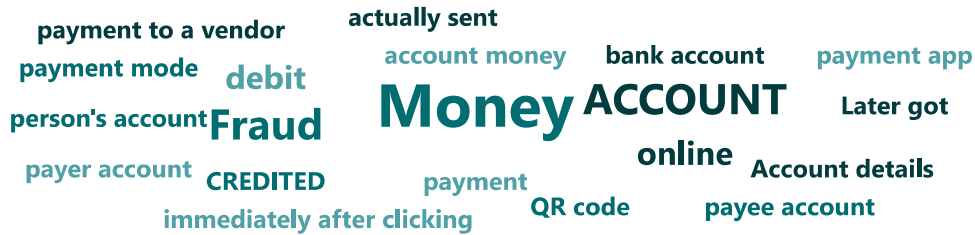

6. If you answered "Yes" to the previous question, please briefly describe the issue(s) you experienced ?

Update

7 respondents (12%) answered Money for this question.

7. What precautions do you typically take to protect yourself while conducting online transactions?

8. What factors influence your decision to trust an online platform or website for transactions?

9. Would you be willing to pay extra for enhanced security features during online transactions?

10. Do you believe that online transactions are generally safe?

11. How do you think governments and regulatory bodies could better protect consumers during online transactions?

42
Responses

Latest Responses

"Na"

"Freedom to give true review should be granted and regulated "

"There should be transparency policy for each online platform "

Update

10 respondents (26%) answered security for this question.

